APRIES - Ending Slavery in Sub-Saharan Africa: A Collective Impact Approach

THEORY OF CHANGE

COLLECTIVE IMPACT

A commitment by APRIES to form a coalition of important actors from different sectors for ending slavery conditions at scale. The 5 conditions of the Collect Impact Approach:

- Common Agenda
- Shared Measurement
- Mutually Reinforcing Activities
- Continuous Communication
- Backbone Organization

EXPLORE
Establish a common agenda with all key partners

PREPARE
Develop a database of key stakeholders, prevalence data, and service gaps

IMPLEMENT
Transform programs to prosecute, protect, and prevent modern slavery

SUSTAIN
Support implementing partners to sustain and grow program through securing non-US government funding

STRATEGIES

OUTPUTS

Robust prevalence data in targeted countries

Engage key stakeholders
Collect prevalence data
Identify common indicators
Identify service gaps

Select implementing partners
Build capacity
Provide technical assistance
Evaluate impact

Establish administrative center (AC)

Evaluate impact

OUTCOMES

MISSION

A measurable and substantial reduction in modern slavery in sub-Saharan Africa

People are freed from all forms of violence with civil and human rights protections

Key Assumptions

- No single organization can end slavery
- Large-scale social change comes from better cross-sector coordination
- Survivors’ voices are essential for success in prosecution, protection, and prevention
- Public and private sectors are essential partners

Challenges

- Slavery is a complex, multi-sector social problem
- Uncoordinated, isolated efforts currently exists with limited funding for scaling up
- Limited understanding of prevalence and impact of existing efforts due to hard to reach populations and limited measurement methodology

APRIES Values

- Evidence-based Programming
- Cross-sector Action
- Diversity
- Cultural Responsiveness
- Empathy
- Integrity